ST. JAMES THE GREAT
FEAST DAY - JULY 25

James was the brother of John the Evangelist; and the Gospels tell us that the two brothers left their father, Zebedee, and followed Jesus as soon as He called out to them. (Matthew 4:18-22)

James was one of the three apostles who were particularly close to the Lord. He was there with the Lord and his brother, John, and Peter at the Transfiguration and in the Garden of Gethsemane.

When James was beheaded by order of King Herod of Agrippa (Acts 12:1-2), he became the first apostle to shed his blood for Christ. He was martyred in A.D. 44 in Jerusalem.

He is known as James "the Greater" to distinguish him from the other apostle by the same name. The title has little to do with his function or the people's regard for him. Rather, it was a term indicating that he was the elder of the two.

He is the patron saint of Spain and of pilgrims. In northwestern Spain, he is venerated at Santiago de Compostela, a mediaeval pilgrimage site that is still very popular today.

The coveted scallop seashell is a symbol unique to the pilgrimage of St. James. The scallop shell was greatly treasured and worn proudly on the breast or hat; and it became the equivalent of a passport identifying travelers as pilgrims.

Homes along the route would invite shell-wearing pilgrims to stay overnight; and to this day, pilgrims to Santiago de Compostela, Spain, identify themselves with a seashell.

Our Patron Saint

"If you learn everything except Christ, you learn nothing. If you learn nothing except Christ, you learn everything."

- St. Bonaventure

PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON

O Heavenly Father, all the elements of nature obey your command. Calm the storms that threaten us and turn our fear into praise of your goodness. Protect us from hurricanes and disasters of nature. We pray through Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

One of my close friends is a hermit priest who lives on a desert mountain. Recently I found myself in a group conversation about him. One vehemently objected, "What does he do up there all day? Nothing! Priests are down here working, running parishes, making a difference, and he... he is doing nothing! What a waste." The words dripped with indignation and resentment. Most of the group quietly nodded in silent agreement. Were they correct?

No! To see why, consider a similar scenario in this week's Gospel. Jesus visits his friends Martha and Mary. A hardworking and exasperated Martha complains to Jesus that her sister is attending to him rather than to urgent household tasks. Our Lord, rather than praising hospitality, explicitly celebrates the less-productive sister for doing the "one necessary thing." He praises her for she "has chosen the better part" (Luke 10:42). Mary is busy doing what matters.

Before we freak out like Martha, consider that all work — domestic, manual, professional, ministerial, contemplative — is done to help us (sooner or later) to experience the love that makes us happy. We should be thankful for those who focus on the "better part" of radical, ceaseless prayer. They invite us to remember the purpose of all work is the enjoyment of love. Contemplatives, hermits, anyone fervently committed to prayer—they invite us to cast aside our forgetful, resentful, and self-aggrandizing attitudes in exchange for hearts ready to do what is finally necessary.

— Father John Muir

SYMPATHY

The Saint James community wishes to extend our deepest sympathy to the family and friends of:

Charlotte Lindsey,
Cathy Oser and
Michael Holley Smith

May they and all the souls of the faithful departed now share in Eternal Glory and may their loved ones receive God's consolation and peace.

A Prayer for our Military and First Responders

Lord, please hold our military and first responders in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform.

Amen.

IT'S A BIBLE BONANZA!

The Life Teen Catholic Youth Bible is the New American Bible Revised Edition NABRE with additional content for bible study for teens. This Catholic youth bible for teens has captivating artwork, relevant insights, practical tips, and words of encouragement that will both inspire you to make a habit of reading Scripture and to allow the eternal voice of truth to guide you above all others.

Saint J needs new Bibles; and we'd like to provide them with the LifeTeen Catholic Teen Bible, New Edition. A donation of $27 will provide one Bible and will give our teens the gift of God's word - made just for them. The donor's name will be notated on the inside cover of the Bible.

Donor slips may be found in the back of the church and on the side tables. Please fill out a slip and return it with cash/check to the church office or place it in the weekend collection. You may also Venmo the payment and notate Bible Bonanza.

OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults) classes are offered for those interested, baptized and unbaptized, in learning about the Catholic Faith and/or those cradle Catholics who have never been confirmed.

Classes will begin in September.

OCIA meets on Tuesdays at 7:00PM in the Raphael Room. For information, contact Deacon Henderson 228-209-6960.

MARRIAGE

Please note: The Diocese of Biloxi requires that engaged couples should begin the Marriage Preparation process no fewer than six months prior to the anticipated wedding date. Wedding dates CANNOT BE SCHEDULED until the engaged couple contacts and meets with the Family Life Coordinator.

To begin the process, please contact Mara Russo at FLC@saintjamescc.com or 228-896-6059.

Clearing the Confusion: Common Misconceptions About Annulments

Many Catholics have questions regarding annulments.
Here's the truth:

"If we get an annulment,
our children will be illegitimate."

→ False. Children from an annulled marriage remain completely legitimate in both civil and Church law. Annulments never "erase" a family or deny what was shared.

Have questions or need support? Please contact Mara Russo at FLC@saintjamescc.com or by calling the parish office at 228-896-6059.

BAPTISM

Baptism Preparation classes are held once a month. The next class will be August 9.

DIOCESAN NEWS

"A PLACE FOR HOPE AND HEALING"

The Mercy Cross Center is committed to making a positive impact in the lives of those who are without a home, supporting those in need, and ultimately decreasing the number of individuals in our local community who are without housing. The Mercy Cross Center and its partners will offer a range of essential services to support individuals experiencing the need for a day shelter.

One of those partners, Loaves and Fishes, has an immediate need for plastic utensils, napkins, small Styrofoam cups and non-Tide detergent. Eggs are always needed (store-bought or powdered); and other miscellaneous items include condiments - mayo & ketchup; large cans of powered drink mix, tea, coffee, brown sugar, grits, butter/spread, sandwich bread, large jars of jelly (grape or strawberry), peanut butter; dessert (cookies, crackers, cake mix) and cooking oil.

Please consider making a donation of these items and drop them off at the Parish Office.
