SPECIAL COLLECTION

Our second collection this weekend (September 12-13) is to support the diocesan Center for International Seafarers and Truckers. The funds from this collection support our diocese's responsibility to the seamen and truckers passing through the ports in our diocese and to provide opportunities for them to attend Mass and receive the Sacraments. Please be generous as the Center relies on this annual collection to support this vital ministry.

"The light you share with others never dims your own"

Rev. Father Watson, the Provincial Superior of Divine Mercy Province of Heralds of Good News, a religious order, will be visiting our parish next weekend (September 19-20) to share a few words about their ministry in Africa and India and to appeal for your kind and generous support. Let us welcome him and share our generous hearts with the poor and needy. Please consider supporting and encouraging their missionary works in Africa and India.

Happy Grandparents Day to all of our grandparents!

MEAL SIGN UP

We are excited to begin preparing for a new year with Saint J Youth! Each of our Life and Edge Nights concludes with a shared meal, giving our teens the opportunity to gather, build friendships and grow in community.

Many of our parishioners have asked how they can support our youth ministry, and providing a meal is one of the most meaningful ways to do so. Whether you prepare a homemade dinner, sponsor a catered meal, or team up with others to provide food, your generosity has a lasting impact on the lives of our young people.

Please consider signing up to provide a meal for one of our Youth Ministry Nights during the Fall semester. More information can be found using the QR code or by accessing the link on our website.

Clearing the Confusion: Common Misconceptions About Annulments

Many Catholics have questions regarding annulments. Here's the truth:

Myth: I can't receive Communion (or I'm unwelcome at Mass) because I'm divorced and don't have an annulment.

Truth: Divorce itself does not change a person's standing in the Catholic Church, and it does not mean you are unwelcome at Mass. Sadly, this misconception has caused many people unnecessary fear or shame. Divorced Catholics are encouraged to continue participating in the life of the Church, including attending Mass and staying connected to the parish community. However, if a person has remarried without a declaration of nullity, they should refrain from receiving the Eucharist until their situation is resolved—but they should still come to Mass and remain close to the Lord and His Church.

Have questions or need support? Please contact Mara Russo at FLC@saintjamescc.com or by calling the parish office at 228-896-6059.
