Clearing the Confusion: Common Misconceptions About Annulments

Many Catholics have questions regarding annulments. Here's the truth:

Myth: I can't receive Communion (or I'm unwelcome at Mass) because I'm divorced and don't have an annulment.

Truth: Divorce itself does not change a person's standing in the Catholic Church, and it does not mean you are unwelcome at Mass. Sadly, this misconception has caused many people unnecessary fear or shame. Divorced Catholics are encouraged to continue participating in the life of the Church, including attending Mass and staying connected to the parish community. However, if a person has remarried without a declaration of nullity, they should refrain from receiving the Eucharist until their situation is resolved—but they should still come to Mass and remain close to the Lord and His Church.

Have questions or need support? Please contact Mara Russo at FLC@saintjamescc.com or by calling the parish office at 228-896-6059.

OPEN ENROLLMENT

ST. PATRICK CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL

ENROLLMENT FOR THE 2026-2027
SCHOOL YEAR OPENS JANUARY 26
STPATRICKHIGHSCHOOL.NET/APPLY

January 25, 2026

Dear St. James Parishioners:

This week, we begin our annual observance of Catholic Schools Week, which will be celebrated from January 25th through January 31st. We set aside this week each year to focus on the gift that Catholic education provides to young people and its contributions to our church, our community, and our nation. During Catholic Schools Week, we reach out to the community to build awareness of what our school has to offer. We would like to thank all those who work hard every day to make St. James Catholic School excellent.

The theme of our celebration is “United in Faith and Community”. Catholic schools have an irreplaceable role in the Church’s evangelizing mission. Building on the central goal of Catholic schools to form saints, Catholic schools teach and embrace the whole person, body, mind, and spirit. The fact that all members of a Catholic school community share the Christian vision of faith that Christ is the foundation of Catholic education is what unites the school as a faith-filled community.

While faith is the binding element in Catholic schools, the Church reiterates that parents are the first teachers of their children. Holding this tenet, Catholic school communities expand beyond the walls of school buildings to envelop the family as an integral part of the school community. Together teachers, administrators, staff, students, and parents fuel the light of faith by integrating culture with faith and faith with living.

Faith development, academic excellence, and dedication to service are the key elements of Catholic education. These elements set Catholic schools apart from other educational options, and they are a few of the many reasons that families make sacrifices to provide their children with a Catholic education.

I am grateful every day for the teachers, staff, council members, parents, volunteers, and parishioners who are involved in the success of our school. May God bless all those who contribute to the important work they do on behalf of the children of our parish and school.

I pray for God’s abundant blessings on each of you.

Sincerely,

Tricia Harvey
