

Doug's Reflection

11-16-25 THE THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Maybe you hear folks talk down other churches, or even each other. Ever met anyone like that? And if I asked these other people if they had met anyone like that, would your name come up? You see, there are certain mountains we should not try to climb. Only God can climb them. Mount Inspiration (make sure it's from the Holy Spirit!) - - - Mount Messiah (there are those with a "messiah complex") - - - Mount Self-Sufficient (this is the mountain of modern culture) - - - Mount Applause (drawing attention to ourselves when attention should be focused on God). So be careful with what you do. Watch what you say, if only for today. LIVE today for the Lord, in everything you do and say, and with everything you don't do and don't say. Do this just for today and every day, and tomorrow will take care of itself. AMEN!
