

Doug's Reflection

03-01-26 THE SECOND SUNDAY IN LENT

We believe that God is sovereign. God is supposed to make everything work out perfectly. Nothing is supposed to touch us as long as we are walking with God. Nothing could be farther from the truth. The closer you try to walk with God, the more holy you become, the more you can expect attack from the enemy. This is the very problem that leads Christians to despair when they go through trials. They can't imagine how God could ever let anything bad happen to them. They treat God as though God is a waiter, serving us up whatever they want and whenever they say. As a result, when they find themselves in the midst of terrible circumstances, they tend to crumble and blame God. They accuse God of not caring, not being just, not acting in a loving manner, not having their best interest in mind. But God does! Keep the faith!
