Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Recent studies suggest that millennials will be the first generation in America to be worse off than their parents in terms of financial earnings and job status. Many lament this. I propose that this week's Gospel provides a hopeful way to see the trend as good news.

The Lord Jesus says, "Take care to guard against greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist in possessions" (Luke 12:15). Greed damages us with the deception that we are what we possess. But to Jesus, this is simply not true. What makes us happy is who we are, who we become.

Does not the expectation that every generation should do better than their parents subtly mask the poison of greed? A similar attitude is mirrored in the man who demands that Jesus justly arrange his share of the family inheritance. Despite the injustice, Jesus will not play that game. In fact, he seems to prefer that the man have less than his parents. What good would having more be to this man if he becomes enslaved and miserable by greed? What good would it be for us to have more if it means we become much less?

In allowing the man to have less, Jesus opens a space for him to become more: a man free to love. In that much more meaningful sense, perhaps he was better off than his parents. Maybe the millennials will be, too.

FAITH FORMATION

A FAMILY OF FAITH GRADES K-5

This fall, all families (those in Catholic school, public school and home school) are encouraged to join A Family of Faith. We're getting ready to help the whole family learn more about our Catholic faith; and this year, we will focus on Christian prayer, the fourth pillar of the Catechism of the Catholic Church, and why it is so essential for growing in relationship with God. After exploring the covenant drama of prayer in Scripture, we'll learn the richness of the Our Father, the major expressions of prayer, and the example of the Virgin Mary in conversations with God.

For more information, please contact Linda Hebert at lindahebert@saintjamescc.com

"A PLACE FOR HOPE AND HEALING"

The Mercy Cross Center is committed to making a positive impact in the lives of those who are without a home, supporting those in need, and ultimately decreasing the number of individuals in our local community who are without housing. The Mercy Cross Center and its partners will offer a range of essential services to support individuals experiencing the need for a day shelter.

One of those partners, Loaves and Fishes, has an immediate need for plastic utensils, napkins, small Styrofoam cups and non-Tide detergent. Eggs are always needed (store-bought or powdered); and other miscellaneous items include condiments - mayo & ketchup; large cans of powered drink mix, tea, coffee, brown sugar, grits, butter/spread, sandwich bread, large jars of jelly (grape or strawberry), peanut butter; dessert (cookies, crackers, cake mix) and cooking oil.

Please consider making a donation of these items and drop them off at the Parish Office.

VOCATION PRAYER

Loving Father, Your Son, Jesus Christ the High Priest, has told us that the harvest is great but the laborers are few. We ask you now to send more laborers into your vineyard. Please touch with your Holy Spirit the hearts of all those you are calling to live a life of service in your Church as Priests, Deacons, Consecrated men and women, Dedicated Married couples and Committed Single persons. Help us to follow Christ faithfully and to answer the call to holiness and discipleship. Alexandria remained paralyzed at age 21 from a dramatic incident in which she fled from the clutches of violence. She did not permit herself to be overcome by sadness and by loneliness. Her daughter, "Jesus, You are present in the tabernacle. I am here in my body, so that we can keep company."

Following the sufferings from physical suffering for long years, we see the woman and after this period of suffering, she was married to the Eucharist. It is a continuous conversion of a person.

A person who is not content with the Eucharist, but who is in a continuous conversion of a person.
