Sharing the Light of Christ

We offer congratulations to Chris & Kate Spear, who were presented the 2026 Lumen Christi Award by Bishop Kihneman at the Annual Lumen Christi Mass. We are most grateful for your dedicated service and example.

Flowers

We thank the Oberlies family for sharing the beautiful flowers in memory of Mary Anne throughout the church and Adoration Chapel. May she and all the souls of the faithful departed, rest in peace.

"The light you share with others never dims your own"

Rev. Father Watson, the Provincial Superior of Divine Mercy Province of Heralds of Good News, a religious order, will be visiting our parish this weekend (September 19-20) to share a few words about their ministry in Africa and India and to appeal for your kind and generous support. Let us welcome him and share our generous hearts with the poor and needy. Please consider supporting and encouraging their missionary works in Africa and India.

IN MEMORIAM

Sr. Rita Murray

The parishioners of Saint James and Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary are grateful for the many years of ministry that she gave as a teacher & principal at Saint James Catholic School and Nativity of the BVM School. She died in Dublin on September 15, 2026. A Memorial Mass will be celebrated at Saint James at a later time, with details to be announced.

Clearing the Confusion: Common Misconceptions About Annulments

Many Catholics have questions regarding annulments. Here's the truth:

Myth: I can't receive Communion (or I'm unwelcome at Mass) because I'm divorced and don't have an annulment.

Truth: Divorce itself does not change a person's standing in the Catholic Church, and it does not mean you are unwelcome at Mass. Sadly, this misconception has caused many people unnecessary fear or shame. Divorced Catholics are encouraged to continue participating in the life of the Church, including attending Mass and staying connected to the parish community. However, if a person has remarried without a declaration of nullity, they should refrain from receiving the Eucharist until their situation is resolved—but they should still come to Mass and remain close to the Lord and His Church.

Have questions or need support? Please contact Mara Russo at FLC@saintjamescc.com or by calling the parish office at 228-896-6059.
